

A catalogue for true poster aficionados

The catalogue for the upcoming spring poster auction is ready for purchase. Browse through 144 pages of vintage poster art and enjoy an exciting selection of more than 600 posters covering a variety of themes and styles of the very best that 100 years of Swiss poster design has to offer.

Once more tourist posters take centre stage; whether it's shipping, railway, summer or winter themes you're after, there is no doubt you will find something to your taste amongst this first-rate selection of more than 200 travel posters.

There is sweet temptation, too, with a rich sampling of 40 or so posters advertising chocolate products.

Completing this auction's impressive offering is an outstanding collection of product, object and event posters – an ever popular category in its own right. With all posters depicted in colour the catalogue 1112 again will serve you as a valued work of reference.

Every poster in the catalogue is shown in colour, presenting an overview of 100 years of Swiss and international poster design.

It is much more than a catalogue – it is a true work of reference!

- More than 220 classic travel posters promoting national and international tourist destinations.
- Information about the artist, year of printing, format and condition, as well as the call price and estimated market value are provided for every poster.
- Product and object posters – illustrating 100 years of graphic advertising history.
- Absentee bids possible using the attached bid form or via our website at www.poster-auctioneer.com
- Let yourself be tempted by a sweet selection of chocolate posters.
- A list with the prices realized will be sent to you after the auction.
- Call prices far below market value.